

Workshop

SHIPPING EFFICIENCY AND ECONOMIC GROWTH 1350-1800

Lagos | 19-21 de Abril de 2007 | Paços do Concelho

Coordenação: Richard W. Unger

Organização: Câmara Municipal de Lagos

Língua de trabalho: INGLÊS

19 de Abril, quinta-feira

9.30H Session 1 - Introductory Remarks

Richard W. Unger | University of British Columbia, Canadá

Jan Lucassen | International Institute of Social History, Amesterdão, Países Baixos

11.15H Session 2 - Effects of Shipping I

Patrick O'Brien & Xavier Duran | London School of Economics, Inglaterra

The Royal Navy, the Merchant Marine and the First Industrial Revolution from Cromwell to Nelson

14.30H Session 3 - Effects of Shipping II

Derek Keene | University of London, Inglaterra

Installations and Infrastructure: London and Northern European Ports

Amélia Polónia & Inês Amorim | Universidade do Porto

European Seaports as Centres of Economic Growth (16th - 18th centuries): an Historiographical Approach

16.30H Session 4 - Sources

Francisco Contente Domingues | Universidade de Lisboa

Resources for Portuguese Maritime History 1400-1700: an Assessment

20 de Abril, sexta-feira

9.00H Session 5 - Different Trades and Different Patterns I

David Ormrod | University of Kent, Inglaterra

Institutions and the Environment: Shipping Movements in the North Sea Zone, 1650-1800

Regina Grafe | Northwestern University, EUA

The Strange Tale of the Decline of Spanish Shipping

11.00H Session 6 - Different Trades and Different Patterns II

Nuala Zahedieh | Edinburgh University, Escócia

Productivity in England's Atlantic Shipping in the Late Seventeenth Century: Evidence from the Navigation Acts

Kenneth Morgan | Brunel University, Inglaterra

Productivity Trends in the Eighteenth-Century British Slave Trade

21 de Abril, sábado

9.30H Session 7 - Different Trades and Different Patterns III

J.R. Bruijn | Leiden University, Países Baixos

Progress and Retardation in the Dutch East-India Company

Rui Manuel Loureiro | Câmara Municipal de Lagos

Ships and Cargos on the Macau Nagasaki Route (1570-1640)

11.15H Session 8 - Labour Supply

Jelle van Lottum, Jan Lucassen & Lex Herma van Voss | International Institute of Social History, Amesterdão, Países Baixos

National and International Maritime Labour Markets 1600-1800

14.30H Session 9 - Shipping, Productivity and Growth

Milja van Tielhof & J. L. Van Zanden | University of Utrecht, Países Baixos

Productivity Growth in Shipping in the Dutch Republic: the Evidence from Freight Rates 1580-1800

Robert Allen | University of Oxford, Inglaterra

How International Commerce Made the Industrial Revolution

16.00H Session 10 - General Discussion and Closing Remarks

Entrada livre

Inscrições:

rui.loureiro@cm-lagos.pt

